Love that we are mentioned in the same breath! I think it would be a great idea to have someone like me on the panel so that I could be the reality check of what might happen if they do not get their act together. Often times people end up on the doorsteps of Divorce not realizing what lies ahead. Yes – some marriages have run their course and an ending is in everyone's best interest, but that is not the case for many. Others unfortunately get caught up in ego based reactive behavior, resulting in actions, words and decisions that bring chaos and stress and a destructive divorce. So buyer beware!
